

Printer's ink won't make the car go. There's only one reason why 200,000 new Ford's can't possibly satisfy this season's demand. The car itself is right, with a rightness that is unmatched anywhere at any reasonable price.

Our great factory has produced nearly a quarter of a million Model T's. Prices: Runabout, $525; Touring Car, $600; Town Car, $800-f. o. b. Detroit with all equipment. GRIFFIN IS HUNTING FOR MORE PITCHERS

(Continued from First Page.) to find the weak spots. They are located now and will be properly treated.

Steve will carry just fourteen men to Norfolk to battle with the Tars. They are Luskey, Mace, Raley, Newton, Bres-nahan, Tennant, Piez, Eberts, Laval, Bussey, Strain, Burleson and Small-wood. The rest of the squad will re-main at home and work out every day.

The diamond will be put in proper shape by the time the club returns. A large force of men will be put to work smoothing down the rough places.

Every follower of the game will be sorry to learn of the injury to Willie McComas, formerly known as Baker. A broken leg at this time of the season means a layoff for practically the entire way. McComas is far too valuable a player and far too residence. able a player and far too gentlemanly a boy to be lost. Roanoke will feel and regret his absence before the sea-son closes.

Umpire Colgate has given the fans a demonstration that he knows the game. Like every one connected with baseball, he has not reached his top form yet, but he promises to improve with more practice. If the rest measure up to his standard, President Boatwright deserves congratulations.

we recall, we said something about Petersburg not being ready. Here's apologies to H. C. Busch. His club is not only ready, but it is overdone.

Highland Park Again Victorious.

The Highland Park girls closed a very successful basketball season by decisively defeating the girls of Highland Springs yesterday by the score of 20 to 14.

Highland Park led from the very first, the score standing 11 to 7 in their favor when time was called for the intermission. But Highland Springs was in the game at all times, and the pace was fast throughout. Both sides passed well and guarded closely.

In all of their games this year the Highland Park's passing has been conspicuous. They play with a dash and enthusiasm that speaks will for the coach.

Lounsberry, After Absence of Several Months From Tracks,

Goes Back to Hospital. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Havre de Grace, Md. Agril 19.—
Jockey Lounsberry, who returned to the races yesterday at Havre de Grace, after an absence of several months due to the fact that his leg was broken in a race at Fort Eric last summer, met with a similar misfortune this afternoon in the second race. Lounsberry had the mount on Light-o-my-Life, and next to him was Anavri, who became frightened and kicked Lounsberry's mount. Anavri's hoof also hit the boy's right leg and he sell to the ground suffering from pain. Butwell was substituted for Lounsberry, but it made no difference with the result, for Caugh Hill, the favorite, carrying 123 pounds, sprinted into a long lead was substituted for Lounsberry, but it made no difference with the result, for Caugh Hill, the favorite, carrying 123 pounds, sprinted into a long lead soon after the break, and lasted long enough to win with something to spare. St. Louis, April 19.—The Cubs beat the Cardinals 6 to 1 to-day in a sort of ball-bearing combat. A liberal outburst of nine passes among seven hits off three struggling home pitchers gave Evers's gang an easy time. B. Hunt exploded in the fifth, and the Cubs grabbed off three runs with the aid of a single swat. Richie was wild in the first and passed three before coming to earth. After that he steadled and the Cardinals could do nothing with him. Mowrey's single among the flock of passes produced the run. Score:

Southerners. The Quaker athletes appeared in excellent shape, and had not the track been so soft, some records would probably have fallen. Patterson was in especially good trim. Aided by a little wind at his back, he drew away from all his competitors in both dash events, breasting the tape in the century in 9 4-5 seconds, and in the furlong sprint 21 4-5 seconds.

Madeira, Penn's star distance runner, lived up to his reputation in the mile event, breasting the tape in 4:30 2-5. McCurdy put up a grand race in the two-mile event, finishing in whirlwind style and being applauded to the echo. Cronly, of Virginia, captured both hurdle events, topping the timbers in splendid fashion. In the low hurdles, which he negotiated in twenty-five seconds, he incidentally established a new South Atlantic record. He defeated Griffiths, the Quaker star, by at least twenty feet.
